“Cellar Hole Walk”

Led by: Robert Mardin

Join Robert Mardin on a cellar hole walk off of Eastern Corners road. Meet at Campton Historical Society at 9 am to carpool or follow to the actual starting place. Robert is packing a lunch and is going to keep going as long as people are willing. The plan is to go two miles up and down a dirt road. People can turn back and head down the road to fit their needs. We will be parking our cars in a “reasonable area”. Beyond that point we will be walking as larger 4x4 trucks are needed.

Rain date is Sunday August 24th.

From Bob Pulsifer:

This is the old cellar hole at the Henry H Southmayd place out east. It was part of the Gardner Spencer farm earlier on, research is still on going, got bits and pieces of the cellars but looking for information back to earlier times to help tell the story. Its going to take another trip or two out there anyways before this is done.

The presentation will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible, and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. For information about the Society, check our web site at
