

Sunday December 5, 2010 from 4:00-5:30pm

“Community Holiday Concert and Cookie Swap”

Come enjoy an early evening of fun and camaraderie, featuring Jim Tyrrell, playing keyboard and guitar; Rhubarb Pie (featuring Peggy Martin, of Campton), a blend of Celtic and other traditional music; Dan Hale, folk music performer and member of Pemi Choral Society; and Jim Aguiar, folk and traditional music performer.

Bring along a dozen and a half of your favorite Christmas Cookie to share and exchange. (Bring your recipe as well.) Campton Historical Society will provide Hot Cocoa to warm the body and the musicians will provide the music to warm the heart and spirit. Even if you don't bake come sing around our old fashioned Christmas Tree and enjoy an evening of fun for the young and young at heart.

This event is rated FFF for Free Family Fun!!!

The presentation will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible, and open to the public. For information about the Society, check our web site at www.camptonhistorical.org
