

“Holiday Concert and Cookie Swap”

Come enjoy an early evening of fun and camaraderie. Like good apple cider the best comes from a nice blend of apples. This year’s Community Holiday Concert promises to create a blend of musical offerings that will satisfy anyone’s thirst for a good time. Dust off your vocal cords and get ready to join in the singing of Christmas Carols as we all get in the spirit of the season.

Back by popular demand is Rhubarb Pie (Peggy Martin (flute); Linda O'Donnell (accordion); Bill Taffe (concertina) and Betty Jo Taffe (keyboard)), the always entertaining AJ Coppola with a Brass Attack from Campton Elementary School, William Gunn with a chamber choir from Plymouth Regional High School and Joe Heise with his harpsicord.

After the musical performance and sing-a-long (there are no Simon Cowell types among us) you can enjoy the annual cookie fest. Bring along a dozen or so of your own cookies and you can swap them for other delightful treats. Even if you don’t bring cookies you can still join in the good food and good fun. The Campton Historical Society will provide hot cocoa and more to help wash down the cookies and brighten you spirits.

This event is rated FFF for Free Family Fun!!!

The presentation will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible, and open to the public. For information about the Society, check our web site at www.camptonhistorical.org
