

"Nepal Adventure"

Presented by: Jim Shimberg

Some people have life others can only dream of. Local legend Jim Shimberg is one of those peoples. This past year Jim spent some time ice climbing in Napeal. Hear about this trip and much more as the always passionate and charismatic Jim Shimberg educates and entertains.

Jim Shimberg started Rhino Guides in 1985, while taking 2 friends climbing at Cannon Cliff, on the Whitney Gilman Ridge. Now, 22 years later and with almost 30 years of climbing experience, Jim -- "Shim", to all who know him -- has guided throughout North America and the world, including trips to Iceland, Peru, Bulgaria, The Czech Republic, China, Scotland, Thailand and Canada. Jim has climbed in Alaska since 1987, with 7 expeditions to Denali, Mt Hunter, Mt Huntington, and other great peaks. Shim has guided from his home base in New Hampshire since 1985, and has many first ascents on ice, rock and mixed terrain to his credit. Called the "Custodian of Cannon Cliff", Jim has cleared loose rock, developed trails and repaired poor anchors on the huge east face of Cannon Cliff, in Franconia Notch NH, for over 20 years. In addition, Shim is a Mountain Rescue Service "A" Team Member and participates in technical rescues throughout the White Mountains. He is also a Wilderness First Responder, and continues classes in medical training and rescue seminars.

Jim was also an early developer of the cliffs at Rattlesnake Mountain in Rumney NH, now a world-class sport climbing venue with close to 700 routes of all grades.
