"Coffee Talk"

Presented by: Eddie Guinta

The story begins in 1928 in Germany and includes Peru, Puerto Rico and Plymouth NH. Now living in Campton, Eddie and Micky Giunta are passionate coffee people and this presentation is sure to give you a shot of caffeine.

Eddie will also be kicking off our tour on July 21st with the roasting facility in Plymouth. Promotional flyer at www.camptonhistorical.org/events_schedule.htm

Cafe Monte Alto was established in 1997 when Eddie and Micky Giunta began importing premium green coffee beans from family-owned farms in Puerto Rico and Peru to the USA. These beans are all of the Arabica Family. They are picked, processed immediately, and dried over a long period of time. The coffee is stored in pergamino and husked only days prior to shipment.

Special Events:

July 21 - Tour and Contra Dance

August 4 - Old Home Day

Oct 5 - Oktoberfest concert Dinner

Dec 1 - Holiday Concert & Cookie Swap

The presentation will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible, and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. For information about the Society, check our web site at www.camptonhistorical.org
