"Veterinary Medicine in New Hampshire" Presented by: Dr. Ellyn Tighe

For the past 25+ years Dr. Ellyn Tighe has cared for animals large and small at Plymouth Animal Hospital. This presentation will cover some of the history of veterinary medicine in the state, the local area and experiences she has had during her years practicing.

Ellyn Tighe earned her undergraduate degree in wildlife biology from the State University of New York College of Environmental Science and Forestry at Syracuse University and her Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine from Cornell University.

Special Events:
July 21 - Tour and Contra Dance
August 4 - Old Home Day
Oct 5 - Oktoberfest concert Dinner
Dec 1 - Holiday Concert & Cookie Swap

The presentation will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible, and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. For information about the Society, check our web site at www.camptonhistorical.org
