

Announces the return of

REBECCA RULE

with her latest presentation

BETTER THAN A POKE in the EYE

Monday May 19 at 7:30

Named "Thalia, Muse of Comedy" by New Hampshire Magazine, Rebecca Rule tells funny, true(ish), close to home stories collected all over the state. Get the inside scoop on dump protocol, town meeting, blue-winged teal, Perley's dump sticker, and septic lagoons. Find out about Catherine's battle with mosquitoes, who's firing shots from the banks of Cockermouth River, how come the Chief of Police is sitting in his cruiser half the night at the top of Hoyt Hill, and what some folks think ought to be the new state motto Rebecca is a New Hampshire native, and has published several books of short stories, and two "how to" books. She writes a column on NH books and writers, has co-hosted a monthly radio program, and is on the steering committee for the New Hampshire Young Writers Conference. She is best known for her live, humorous presentations from Stratford to Keene.

The presentation will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible, and is on Route 175 south. The program is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. For information about the society, check our web site at www.camptonhistorical.org

This program is made possible by a grant from the New Hampshire Humanities Council

>>> Bonus extra program announced. See reverse side for details <<<
ALSO – Ham & Bean Supper, and concert tickets still available. See insert
AND – Docents still needed for greeting visitors this summer. See flier!