

"All Aboard the Titanic"

Presented by: Ted Zalewski

"All Aboard the Titanic" responds to people's enduring fascination with this historic, and very human, event. Including and moving beyond the physical facts of the story, Ted Zalewski explores the personal experiences of selected passengers and crew, including those with New Hampshire affiliations, emphasizing examples of individual courage and triumph.

Ted Zalewski is a Screen Actors Guild actor, a writer, an educator, and a historian. A longtime college and secondary school teacher, Zalewski lectures on historical, literary and natural history topics. He is nationally recognized as a foremost interpreter of Theodore Roosevelt and has presented his living history program on Roosevelt at Smithsonian Institution conferences for educators. In 2012 Zalewski marked his fifth annual July 4th performance as Roosevelt at the Mount Washington Resort. He is a graduate of the University of Illinois and the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

This program is made possible by a grant from the New Hampshire Humanities Council.

The presentation will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible, and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. For information about the Society, check our web site at www.camptonhistorical.org
