"Documentary Explores Characters of Mount Washington" Presented by: Dan Szczesny

Stories from Mount Washington, a 40-minute documentary film by Bill Millios, based on journalist Dan Szczesny's 2018 book "The White Mountain," premiered this past June at the Griffin Memorial Library in Auburn to glowing reviews. Millios and Szczesny will take the film on a tour this fall, stopping at several New England venues. The film is narrated by Szczesny and includes various video footage, interviews and photos compiled during the book's research period. Interviews include rare footage of legendary AMC hut girl Barbara Hill Richardson and Geroge Etzweiler, a 97-year-old ultra runner. In addition, Stories from Mount Washington features music by composer Jeff Rapsis as well as poetry by Mike Morin, Skyler Jaye Rutkowski and Rob Greene.

Dan Szczesny is a long-time author and journalist living in New Hampshire. His books include travelogues on Nepal, Alaska, and the White Mountains. He is a Hemingway Foundation finalist for short fiction and has also written a collection of short stories and of poetry.
