TOURISM THROUGH TIME

HOW TRANSPORTATION SHAPED THE INDUSTRY

By Mark J. Okrant

Have gas and airline prices affected your vacation plans this year? Transportation has been a key factor through the years in tourism. This presentation will use old and current images to illustrate this relationship.

Mark Okrant is professor of Tourism Management and Policy at Plymouth State University. He has coordinated tourism research for the New Hampshire Division of Travel and Tourism Development since 1990. He has conducted tourism marketing and research workshops in several countries, and chaired geographical and tourism organizations. His tourism research has brought him several awards. Mark has also authored 4 books, 3 of which are mysteries with a tourism or historic theme.

This program is sponsored by Chesley's

The program will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. For further information about the Society, visit our web site at www.camptonhistorical.org
