

MUSIC IN THE SPRING FESTIVAL 2008

SUSIE
BURKE

DAVID SURETTE

Saturday June 7 @ 7:30 - Campton Historical Society

Susie and David are one of the finest acts on the New England folk scene, with their own blend of contemporary, traditional, and original folk music. Check them out at www.burkesurette.com

Burke has been described as possessing one of the finest, purest ballad sopranos heard in folk music today. Her musical tastes and influences are varied and many from traditional to swing to Broadway. Her stunning vocals have been heard in many venues since the 80's.

David Surette is one of New England's finest guitarists. A top player of the Celtic fingerstyle guitar, his repertoire includes a range from original compositions to blues, ragtime, and folk music. David is also the head of the folk department at the Concord Community Music School.
