"The History of the Mountain Fare Inn"

Presented by: Jim Hostetler and Susan Preston

The Mountain Fare Inn which is located in the upper village part of Campton has had quite an interesting history since being built in _____. From being a _____ to a mortuary to a party house to it's current incarnation as swanky inn and event center that also doubles as location for freestyle ski training (do you have any pictures of the skiers bouncing on the trampoline? What was the soccer stuff there?) Jim researched and wrote about the Mountain Fare Inn for a college class and is w

NOTE: The inn tour starts at 6:30 and the talk will be after that.

ANOTHER NOTE: This will all be held at the Mountain Fare Inn 5 Old Waterville Rd, Campton, NH
