"Waterville Valley Resort on the International Stage"

Presented by: Dan Egan

Rediscover the historical roots of Waterville Valley Resort as the birthplace of freestyle skiing, the host of the FIS Alpine World Cup, and an essential stop on the road to the Olympics, all through the lens of local Warren Miller ski legend Dan Egan.

Dan Egan is considered a pioneer of “extreme” sports. He appeared in 12 Warren Miller Ski Films. His exploits have been featured on the Discovery Channel, ESPN, and Good Morning America. Powder Magazine named him, “one of the most influential skiers of our time”.

As a winter sports broadcast producer, Egan was awarded a Telly Award (Disaster on Mt Elbrus 1991) and his films have won “Best of the Fest” at the (World Wide and Wild) and (Children of the Snow) at the International Ski Film Festival. Egan is a 3-time New England EMMY award nominee for his TV series, Dan Egan’s Wild World of Winter. He is a three-time NASJA Harold Hirsch award winner for excellence in journalism and a NASJA Mitch Kaplan award winner. Today he channels much of his boundless energy into action sports marketing and consulting to some of the world’s most recognized and iconic brands.

Egan was inducted into the US Ski & Snowboard Hall of Fame in 2016.
